The Raider 1968

Foreword

Our moments at Somerset have varied from the serious to the absurd, from the tedious to the pleasurable, and from the disappointing to the joyous. Though the true life of our school cannot be expressed in words, nor our sentiments captured in phrases, we of The Raider staff hope to convey the essence of our life at Somerset through pictures of the common and uncommon occurrences that have made up our high school years.

How beautiful is youth!

How bright it gleams,

With its illusions,
aspirations, dreams!

Dedication

There is a man at Somerset who, to us, is many men. Most of us know him as a history teacher who, armed with his trusty box of mints, just does not teach history quite like anyone else. Many of us know him as the football coach who likes to think he is calling the big play for the Giants. Some of us know him as a "hacker" on the golf course and a "killer" in the hockey games at the marsh. But all of us in the Class of '68 know Mr. Robert F. Souza for what he really is—a man who is not easily forgotten.

Borden is caught in a squeeze.

Pennant contenders right down to the wire, the baseball team finished in second place in the Narry League with a strong 10-4 mark. The Raiders also earned respect with their fine showing in the Southeastern Massachusetts Baseball Tournament.

Paced by captain Morgan Biastoff, who was second in the league in hitting with a .396 average, the Raiders got top-notch pitching from Roland Chagnon and Steve Borden, clutch hitting from Charley Fisher and Larry Thomas, and tough defensive play from Lou Benevides and Bob Bergeron.

With most of last year's squad returning and with strong help coming up from Coach Sousa's successful J.V. team, Coach Sullivan's varsity crew should find themselves right in the thick of the pennant fight.

Led by co-captains Sandy Curt and Pam Driscoll, the girls' volleyball team finished their season with a record of 9 wins and only 2 losses. With Coach Corcoran guiding them along, the girls triumphantly captured second place in the Bristol County Girls League.

Champs '67

Under the direction of Coach Frances Corcoran, the Raiderettes had a most successful season in softball. They began the season by defeating Rhode Island College in a non-league game. High in spirit and cooperation, the girls continued their winning ways to finish the season with a league record of 8 wins and no losses. Led to success by Co-Captains Sandy (Spyder) Curt and Pat DeMarco, the girls captured the first place title in the Bristol County Girls' League.

Track

The track team, led by captain Charlie Santerre, turned in one of its best seasons ever, copping the Narry League championship with a perfect 3-0 record. The season was topped off by victory in the four-team Narry Meet held at Dighton-Rehoboth.

With one exception, the track team was composed entirely of underclassmen. Highlights included "triples" by Alan Walker and Jim Franco and a new school record in the shotput set by Kenny Day. Russ Bazinet and Jeff Batt in the pole vault, Rich Vickrey in the discus, and runners Jim Laughren, Mike Bettencourt, Preston Henderson, and Bob Connors were among other juniors who helped pace the team to its undefeated record.

With nearly the entire squad returning, Coach White can expect another strong season in track this year.

On Stage . . .

The smallest country in the world—the Duchy of Grand Fenwick . . . a stolen wine label . . . a queen worried about her people . . . a Fenwickian military leader with 16th century weapons and 20th century ambitions . . .

These characters and situations are part of an enjoyable, pointedly satirical comedy. As always, the Dramatic Club, coached by Mr. Ward, worked hard and gave a commendable performance.

A forceful declaration of war.

Spring Concert '67

On June 1, 1967, the Spring Concert was presented under the direction of Mr. Stackpole, Miss Biondi, and Miss Hezelton. Through the cooperative efforts of the three conductors, a most delightful concert echoed throughout the auditorium.

With variety in performances and selections, the concert moved effectively from beginning to end. The concert opened with the first public performance of the String Ensemble under the direction of Miss Biondi. The orchestra followed with a vigorous interpretation of "Russian Sailor's Dance". Equally effective and highly entertaining was the informal performance of Dixieland by the Ramblin' Raiders. For a more serious note, Edith Katon played a piano concerto, and Jane Johnson shortly after charmed the audience with folk songs.

One of the highlights of the program was "The Creation", sung by the Concert Choir and narrated by Mr. George Pontes. Not to be outdone was the Concert Band with its brilliant rendition of the contemporary "Overture in B Flat", a stirring conclusion to the concert and a just success for Mr. Stackpole's first year as music director of Somerset High School.

Senior Banquet

On the evening of June 7, 1967, the Senior Banquet for the Class of '67 was held at White's. An unusual evening of entertainment was provided by talented members of the senior class.

Later in the evening, the dedication of the yearbook was revealed to the seniors, and a grateful Mr. Sullivan accepted the honor of the dedication.

Graduation

Probably the saddest and happiest occasion of the school year, graduation, took place on the evening of June 14, 1967. Junior class president Jay Jew served as grand marshal while the Class of '67 marched into the Junior High School Auditorium to the sound of "Pomp and Circumstance." The graduation prayer was given by Rev. Waldron, and the guest speaker of the evening was Mr. Everett S. Allen. Seniors Pat DeMarco and Tina Iadicola delivered original and inspiring speeches as food for thought for the future.

Kingdom Under the Sea

"Kingdom Under the Sea," the 1967 Junior-Senior Prom, took place June 9 in the Junior High School cafeteria. As the scene of the first prom in years to be held outside of Somerset's gymnasium, the Junior High proved to be a wonderful setting. Under the direction of Mr. White, the art supervisor, and co-chairmen Charlene Mills and Sally Gell, the entire room, the surrounding corridors, and the patio were transformed into a charming underwater kingdom.

Thanksgiving '67

On Thanksgiving, the skies opened up and the Swansea field became a swamp. In the mud and rain the Raiders lost again, by a score of 22 to 8. But in this game, as in all the games all season long, they never quit trying—with guts, desire, and determination—to pull out a win. The '67 Raiders deserve to be remembered just for that.

... and the rains came.

Hard Season for '67 Seniors

On Thanksgiving, twenty-two Somerset seniors took to the field for the last time in Blue Raider uniforms. For them, it had been the kind of season they would like to forget. After an 8-1 record a year ago, the '67 Raiders met defeat head on this year. Their record dropped to 2-7. And what made those losses so frustrating was that they could easily have been victories with just a little luck. But, luck was always riding on the other bench.

Bristol County Champs

With an exceptionally well balanced and extremely skilled team, the Raiderettes captured the Bristol County Championship for the second consecutive year. Undefeated in league games, they finished their schedule with a record of six wins and no losses. Led by co-captains Joanne Doyle and Maureen McDermott, the girls also held a formidable record in non-league games, with a record of three wins, one tie, and one loss. With Coach Corcoran's superior coaching ability, the girls completed their season with plays at RIC, in which they won two games. Also, Joanne Doyle, Moe McDermott, and Beth Connors were chosen for the All-Star team.

Christmas Vespers

The annual Christmas Vespers program was held on December 17, 1967. The program opened with organ music accompanying a reading of The Christmas Story (Luke 2:1-14) by Principal Edward J. Kaylor. The Brass Choir performed several traditional carols and Canzon Septimi Toni by Giovanni Gabrieli for which the choir was split into two groups playing from opposite sides of the auditorium. Mrs. Carol Desrosiers conducted the Girls Glee with senior Susan Vincent singing a solo part.

Under the direction of Mr. Stackpole, the Concert Choir and Orchestra augmented by adult and student musicians from Somerset, Fall River, and Fairhaven, performed Vivaldi's monumental Gloria in D Major. The church-like orchestrations and Latin verses lent a proper religious tone to the 1967 Christmas season

Basketball

Captain Junior and Coach Senior.

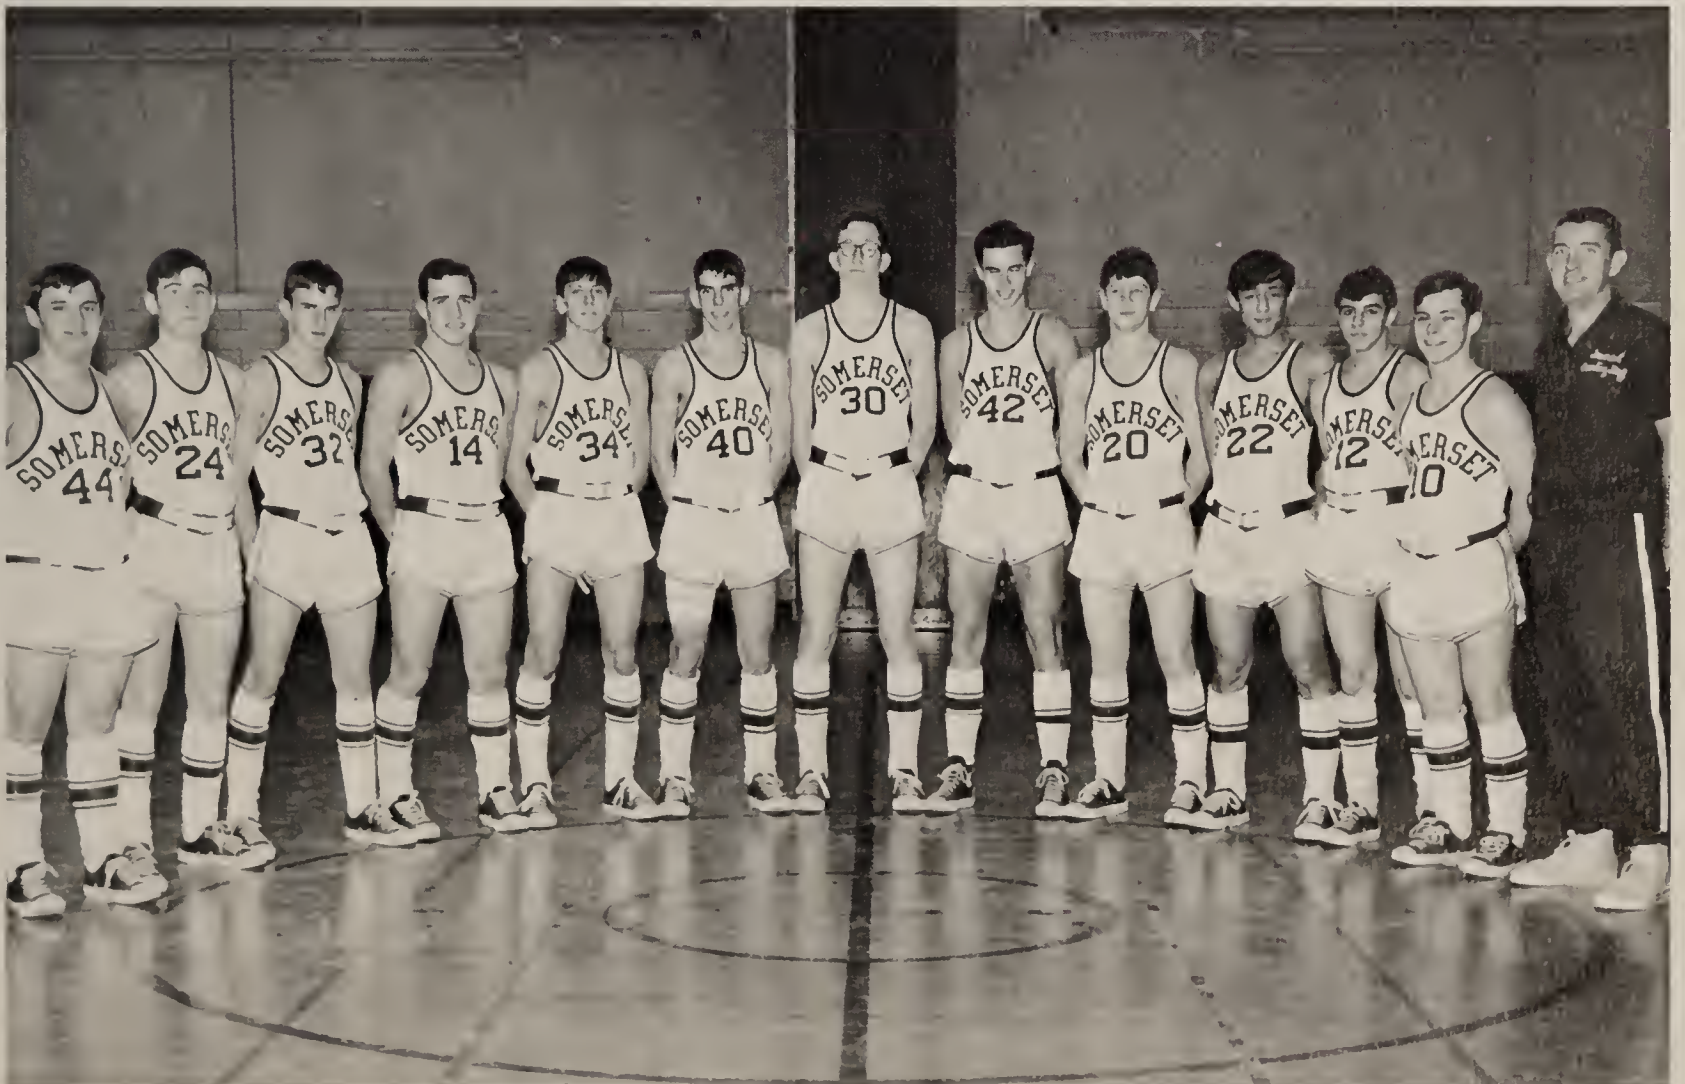

After a slow start, the basketball team caught fire at midseason and finished with a solid 8-6 record and a tie for third place in the Narry League.

Coach Burns' squad hustled and made the clutch plays all season long, even though the team lacked overall size and depth. Larry Thomas, with a 16 point average, and Kevin McGee, with a 13 point average, were among the top scorers in the league. The playmaking of Lou Benevides and Bob Bergeron and the shooting and rebounding of Tom Burns and Jay Jew were also plus points in the Raider season.

The J.V.'s under Coach White also finished with a successful 10-4 record. Up-and-coming "stars" like Rick Doublas, Ray Kowalski, and Bill Wrobleski promise more solid hoop seasons for Somerset.

Another Winning Team

Led by Captain Sharon Burns, the invincible Raiderettes once again completed a successful season, finishing third in the Bristol County Girls' League. Compiling a record of 9 wins and 3 losses in the league and an overall record of 10 wins and 4 losses, the girls repeatedly amazed their opponents with their bustling and superior ball handling. Their record, however, does not reflect their most important qualities. Their spirit was always high. Miss Corcoran and the girls must be commended for their superior sportsmanship qualities and winning ways which are typical of the "Somerset athlete."

Organizations of S.H.S.

The various groups and organizations at Somerset High School are an integral part of school life. All perform a specific function, whether it be enjoyment, entertainment, or performance of a service. As a member of any one of the many groups, a student learns to cooperate with others to achieve a common goal while also finding enjoyment and satisfaction in participation. The following pages of "The Raider" are devoted to the active organizations of Somerset High School.
